ORGANIZATIONS

AFRO-AMERICAN SOCIETY

The Afro-American Society is a social and service organization open to any undergraduate Wake Forest student. The purposes of the society are to promote a better understanding of black life to the W.F.U. community and to bring the entire W.F.U. community and the city of Winston-Salem closer together. The society traditionally sponsors Black Week and participates in the college intramurals. Other planned activities include a Christmas Ball, benefits for Sickle Cell Anemia and High Blood Pressure, and an End-of-the Year dance.

Circle K clubs are dedicated to serving the campus and the community with relevant and meaningful projects that range from campus newspaper recycling to work with children and fund-raising for Cystic Fybrosis.

COLLEGE UNION

Hank Bullard – President Keith Szendrey – Vice President Bill Hawkins – Secretary

The purpose of the Wake Forest College Union is that of a reservoir, which sees as its goal the offering of a wide variety of extracurricular experiences to the entire university community in an effort to compliment and enhance the total education that Wake Forest can offer to her residents. The Union seeks the successful completion of this goal through its student operated committees. Committees such as the Union Concert series, Films, Issues and Ideas, and Recreation, offer not only fine programming and entertainment to the community itself, but also offers the experience of organizing and operating projects to the students on the committees. . Students on the Union interacted with people Quch as columnist Jack Anderson, and have brought to Wake Forest current national topics like the "Who Killed J.F.K." movement and the nuclear energy phenomenon through the expert commentary of Dr. Dixie Lee Ray.

MRC

Scott Smith – President John Gunn – Vice President John Redmond – Secretary Pete Miller – Treasurer

M.R.C., the Men's Residence Council, is an organization open to all male students. Its purpose is to help students realize their potentials outside the classroom through various social, athletic, and academic programs. Although the main strength of M.R.C. is in the four houses themselves, they do present the semiannual raft race and Red Garter Weekend in the Fall.

DAVIS HOUSE

Davis House is based on the chivalric traditions of the Southern gentlemen. It is a social organization that prides itself on its stand for male chauvinism and its attempts to keep "Rock n Roll" alive and flourishing in our Western technocratic society Davis House maintains a social calendar of constant feasts and debauchery based on the traditions of our ancient Roman ancestors, but always leaves enough time and effort open in order to lead our fellow scholars in the academic pursuits of the liberal arts.

KITCHEN HOUSE

Kitchen House, striving to pull itself out of the cellar of campus organizations, has begun a revitalization program. Kitchen House's activities included a semi-formal casino party, picnics, a square dance and a parents weekend breakfast. They also provided opportunities for the members to become involved in intramurals and an intra-house paper.

POTEAT HOUSE

Poteat House is a men's organization that emphasizes academics, athletics, and social activities. All 185 members are active in all phases of campus life. Poteat is nonselective and its varied activities offer opportunities for all members to become involved in the House. Poteat presents the annual Sweetheart and Skimmer Balls along with activities at Homecoming and Christmas.

TAYLOR HOUSE

Taylor House is more than simply a dormitory building. It is also an organization that is a member of the Men's Residence Council at Wake Forest. As a member of the MRC. Taylor House attempts to maintain a residence house program for all its members under the goal of "total education." It is our belief that there is more to college than classrooms, lectures, books, and exams. A "total education" involves ones entire life at Wake Forest, thus, Taylor House has a program that combines the academic, social, and athletic phases of an education.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club is a loosely knit organization whose participants enjoy experiencing a variety of outing activities and sharing their knowledge of the out-of-doors with others. Membership is open to the entire student body. Members engage in activities that include spelunking, hang-gliding, back-packing, bicycling and canoeing. Outing Club also has equipment available for general student check-out and canoes are available on a rental basis.

PIRG

N.C. P.I.R.G. is a social-change organization created, funded and controlled by the college and university students of North Carolina. It is an independent nonprofit North Carolina corporation which seeks to serve the public interest by investigating and researching problems and using public education, administrative procedures, legislative lobbying, and litigation to seek solutions. Member students at each of the four campuses support P.I.R.G. by paying a three dollar membership fee.

At Wake Forest, member students work on both state-wide and local projects: 1.) a Unit Pricing Survey, 2.) a survey to determine the availability of Advertised Specials and 3.) a project to determine how students can get access to their files at Wake Forest now that the Buckley Amendment has required Universities to open all student files.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government Association serves a dual purpose; to represent and promote the interest of all students in social and academic affairs, and to develop and cultivate leadership.

This year the Student Government's main goals are to examine and reform the Student Judiciary and to accentuate acknowledgement of students' rights and responsibilities within the University community.

SNCAE

The Student North Carolina Association of Educators provides its members with information to aid and enhance their future careers. Lectures on topics ranging from student-teacher rights, drug problems and racial conflict to job availability are given by visiting lawyers, principals, and members of Sundial. Panel discussions of the experiences of student teachers, along with leadership conferences and district and national conventions give future educators information and experience they would otherwise not get in their classes.

SOCCER CLUB

The Wake Forest Soccer Club brings together university students and Winston-Salem residents who are interested in soccer. They compete in the North Carolina Soccer League and plan to start a varsity team next year to compete in intercollegiate games on behalf of Wake Forest. The success of soccer on this campus, like any other major sport here at Wake Forest, can come about as a result of financial as well as moral support.

Cheerleaders

For the second year in a row the Demon Deacon cheerleading squad ranked tenth in the nation in ratings made by the International Cheerleading Foundation. Led by All American Jell Dobbs the cheerleaders have developed a display which combines vivacious choreography with dynamic acrobatics. Their long hours devoted to practice and precision have obviously been well spent since they provide a main attraction for the fans at any sports contest and, most importantly, stimulate the spectators to produce "the big roar." Other members of the squad are India Early, Ruth Whitworth, Steve Smith, Barb DeFerrari, Diane Raab, Paul Henning, Ray Crawford, Ann Killian, Mike Williamson, Ben Davis, Sarah Doyle and Gary Dark.

Wake Forest Basketball 1976 Big Four Champs

Wake 95 Carolina 83 Wake 93 State 78

Ten straight season opening wins, including victories over North Carolina and N.C. State, two of the nation's top-ranked teams, should earn a basketball team some reward. So it was this year for Wake; the reward came in the form of the number 5 national ranking. An unanticipated loss to Virginia broke the win streak but the team bounced back with a tremendous victory over number 2 ranked Maryland and seemed to be on their way to a substantial showing in the ACC.

Unfortunately, the noteriety proved to be more than Wake could handle and the team fell into its patented accordion act at mid season. Overtime losses to Duke and Carolina hurt especially though the team then rebounded with three straight conference wins before losing a heartbreaker to N.C. State.

Wake's last second loss to the Wolfpack in Raleigh was quickly avenged by a Deacon victory at home. Spurred on by this season-closing conference victory the team and fans alike looked to the ACC Tournament with hopes for a Deacon performance identical to that of the Big Four Such was not the outcome however as the team turned in a lackluster effort in losing to Clemson in the opening round.

Women's Basketball

Football

Though picked in the early season to finish last in the A.C.C., a poised and determined Deacon football team showed this year that past records are irrelevant. Despite a 3-8 finish, the team enjoyed its best season in four years and were it not for some close decisions such as the last minute 16-14 loss to Clemson in Death Valley the Deacons record could easily have surpassed the .500 mark.

The season was highlighted by several exciting moments for both team and fans, particularly because the Deacons displayed a more varied and effective offensive attack this year. For the first time in four years Wake Forest scored a touchdown against archrival North Carolina and went on to win the game 21-9. This victory came after an overwhelming mauhling of Virginia 66-21. Few will soon forget the first season victory over N.C. State, 30-22, as the Deacons, led by quarterback Jerry McManus and fullback Clark "Super" Gaines on offense and All-American safety Bill Armstrong picked apart the nationally ranked Wolfpack.

Field Hockey

Golf 1975 NCAA CHAMPS

The men's golf team swept to its second straight NCAA Championship to conclude a nearly flawless 1975 season. Jay Haas captured the individual title while Curtis Strange and Bob Byman placed third and fifth respectively. The prospects for a repeat performance in 1976 seem bright as the team continued its winning streak this past fall with team and individual victories in the Dixie Inter-collegiate and Duke Fall Invitational tournaments. Coach Jesse Haddock won NCAA Coach of the Year honors for 1975.

Volleyball

The Women's Volleyball team enjoyed unprecedented success this past season, advancing undefeated through regional play to win the Small College State Championship and the Region II title. Led by seniors Gwen Williams, Laurie Parker, Kelly Jordan, and Roper Osborne, the team then competed in the national tournament but was eliminated in the third round, ending the season with a 31-9 record overall.

It was a quiet year,

Lives settled into slow, rythmic patterns – the academic schedule seldom interrupted

Free time was idled away in the company of a few friends; in solitude.

The essential sense of a unified university community was only a memory from the past.

The pressures of a shakey economy and a tight job market pushed their way into our lives creating an overwhelming obsession with the future.

> Driven by our fears, we secluded ourselves with out books – hoping good grades ensured a successful life.

Competition became the watchword of the age. Mistrust grew up between friends no one could comfort us – for everyone was a runner in the race.

We were good students, insensitive people.

Nonetheless, we had flashes of unity. Glaring moments when lone observers turned into cheering crowds.

Other instants of spontaneity when we clutched out in an effort to help, to laugh, to share our lives.

Victory was quickly swallowed up; laughter died too. Comaraderie faded as rapidly as the echoing cheers.

There were party times when we tried to hide our fears (as well as our growing social ineptness).

The music was loud.

The brew was good.

Yet the cycle refused to release us.

We always returned to our solitude.

So we remained trapped in a limbo of our own creation. We hoped for a different day when we would have both the time and the courage to reach out without a thought for the awesome future which hovered above us.

With no such day in sight, we continued in our isolated struggles.

It was a quiet year.

Ticking away the moments that make up the dull day You Iritter and waste the hours in an off hand way Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town Waiting for someone or something to show you the way

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today And then one day you find ten years have got behind you No one told you when to run, you missed the starting gun

And you run and you run to catch up with the sun, but it's sinking And racing aroung to come up bahind you again The sun is the same in a relative way, but you're older And shorter of breath and one day closer to death

Every year is getting shorter, never seem to find the time Plans that either come to naught or half a page of scribbled lines Hanging on in quiet desperation is the English way The time is gone the song is over, thought I'd something more to say

Home, home again
I like to be here when I can
When I come home cold and tired,
It's good to warm my bones beside the fire
Far away across the field
The tolling of the iron bell
Calls the faithful to their knees
To hear the softly spoken magic spells.

We recall
Captured moments of
Frivolous joys,
Knowledge;
Still
We create
Only to destroy

Leisure hours
Lost in tranquility
Or
Ticked away in escapades:
Beer blasts
T-shirt raids
Sunday rugby . . .

Yes, We were entertained: Celebrated victories Agonized defeats,

(even a few games just for the fun of it). But Mostly we remained Vicariously inhibited . . .

Our Eden –
Beauty
Often encountered
Penetrated
By currents
Of ironic chill

Yet, For most Such reflections Were enveloped By the search Through alleys Of academia.

As this "life" is lost

in the distance

As our reminiscences

rapidly fade

Look

to new searches

And turn

to say

Farewell to the Forest
